

THE SACRED LIGHT PORTAL Declaration of INNER SOVEREIGNTY

All is Love. Fear is illusion. Truth cannot be destroyed.

All beings are inherently free.

I stand today in the remembrance of my Divine nature, my free will, and my inherent sovereignty.

I choose truth over deception, love over fear, and unity over separation.

I withdraw my consent from any influence, agreement, limiting belief, attachment, technology, system, energetic structure, or conscious or unconscious force that interferes with my highest good, my free will, my inner sovereignty, or my direct relationship with Divine Source.

I reclaim my attention, my thoughts, my emotions, my body, my breath, my life force, my voice, my intuition, my discernment, my joy, my peace, my compassion, my memories, my future, my connection with Divine Source, and my sovereign right to choose my own path.

I lovingly release fear, deception, coercion, manipulation, control, energetic entanglements, false identities, outdated vows, contracts no longer aligned with my highest good, ancestral burdens that are ready to be transformed. I release and let go anything that is no longer aligned with my true soul's journey with grace, love, compassion, and divine neutrality.

I now welcome and embrace clarity, wisdom, peace, truth, healthy relationships, joyful creativity, abundance, compassion, deep rest, healthy boundaries, a peaceful heart, a resilient nervous system, whole-brain harmony, alignment with my soul, and the highest expression of my life.

I bless my body. I bless my mind. I bless my heart. I bless my soul. I bless this Earth.
May my life become a blessing to all beings.

This declaration was inspired by Lisa Renee's "Declaration of Freedom for All" and by the version shared on Althea Lucretia's website.

It has been adapted and lovingly rewritten for Sacred Light Portal by Kristina Izutsu.
